Lots of people are expected at Riverbay Association's Yard Sale on May 25 - the Saturday before Memorial Day. We anticipate a big turnout of out-of-town and local buyers during this weekend. This Riverbay Yard Sale will be advertised Cape-wide.

Here's a great opportunity for you to turn your unused items into cash - and clear out your closets, garage, basement, yard and storage areas. Whether you have only a few or many things, just put them on a table in front of your house and sell them.

Here's how the 2019 Riverbay Yard Sale will work:

- Riverbay Association will promote this Yard Sale throughout the Cape.
 - Ads will appear in the Cape Cod Times, Cape Cod Chronicle, Cape Codder, The Register, Sandwich Broadside, Bourne Courier, Falmouth Bulletin.
 - Internet ads will appear on CapeCodOnline and Craigslist.
 - Flyers will be posted on local area bulletin boards.
 - YARD SALE informational signs will be placed at each entrance (on May 6).
- Riverbay street maps, including a listing of each participating Riverbay house, will be handed to each buyer's vehicle entering Riverbay on May 25 beginning at 9AM.
- Each Riverbay participating seller will receive (on Friday May 24) a yellow 18x24-inch YARD SALE sign (shown above) to be placed at each driveway entrance. The signs will be collected immediately after the Yard Sale. (Please Note: The quantity of signs is limited to the first 40 sign-ups received.)
- This is a Riverbay Association benefit for members and at no cost.
- All sales and transactions are strictly between homeowners and buyers.
