Lots of people are expected at Riverbay Association's Yard Sale on May 24 - the Saturday before Memorial Day. We anticipate a large turnout of out-of-town and local buyers.

Here's a great opportunity for you to turn your unused items into cash - and clear out your closets, garage, basement, yard and storage areas. Whether you have only a few or many things, just put them on a table in front of your house or on your driveway - and sell them.

Here's how the 2025 Riverbay Yard Sale will work:

- Riverbay Association will promote this Yard Sale throughout the Cape.
 - Ads will appear in the Cape Cod Times, Cape Cod Chronicle, Cape Codder, Barnstable Patriot, Provincetown Banner, and The Enterprise serving Falmouth, Mashpee, Bourne, and Sandwich.
 - Internet ads will appear on CapeCodOnline and Craigslist.
 - Flyers will be posted on local area bulletin boards.
 - Information signs will be placed near each entrance on Old Queen Anne Rd., Old Comers Rd., and Training Field Rd. to promote the Yard Sale to the passing traffic.
- Riverbay "Greeters" at each entrance will hand a list of participating addresses and a Riverbay street map to all buyers entering Riverbay on Saturday, May 24, beginning at 9am.
- Each Riverbay participating seller will receive (on Friday May 23) a yellow 18x24-inch YARD SALE sign (shown above) to be placed at the seller's driveway entrance. The signs will direct the buyers to each participating seller. All signs will be collected after the Yard Sale.
- This is a Riverbay Association benefit for members at no cost.
- All sales and transactions are strictly between each homeowner and each buyer.
